WHEN WILL WE LEARN

When Will We Learn

AL ORSOM (9.11.2025)

[Verse 1]

The sky is heavy it's holding its tears
The ground is cracked from too many fears
We build our walls then watch them burn

[Chorus]

Oh tell me when will we learn?

[Verse 2]

The silence screams louder than words ever could
We're breaking the things that once understood
Chasing the shadows we always return

[Chorus]

Oh tell me when will we learn?

[Bridge 1]

When will we see what's breaking inside
When will we stop this endless divide
The clock keeps ticking with no concern

[Chorus]

Oh tell me when will we learn?

[Choir]

[Verse 3]

The rivers run dry the oceans grow cold
The stories we tell are the lies we uphold
We're caught in a cycle we can't overturn

[Chorus]

Oh tell me when will we learn?

[Bridge 2]

Maybe we're lost in a game we designed
Maybe we're blind to the scars left behind
But hope is a spark that forever will yearn

[Chorus]

Oh tell me when will we learn?

[Bridge 1]

When will we see what's breaking inside
When will we stop this endless divide
The clock keeps ticking with no concern

[Chorus]

Oh tell me when will we learn?

[Piano Riff]
