Break the Silence

Break the Silence

by AL ORSOM and DeeKay

[1. Verse]

The walls seem high these days
Can't jump high enough to conger the isolation

[Pre-Chorus]

Who cares anyway
Who cares anyway

[Chorus]

Stand up for yourself
Break the silence
The safe road ain't always the best road

[2. Verse]

If you wanna know about the world outside
Turn on the TV
That should do it
If the truth becomes too painful
Switch a channel
It's not that hard – it's not that hard

[Bridge]

Hop on the beam
Follow the steam
No worries
And no conscious

[Chorus]

Stand up for yourself
Break the silence
The safe road ain't always the best road

[Bridge]

Hop on the beam
Follow the steam
No worries
And no conscious

[Chorus]

Stand up for yourself
Break the silence
The safe road ain't always the best road
