Let Go

Let Go

by AL ORSOM

[1. Verse]

In the quiet of the morning, when the world's still asleep,
I hear the echoes of the stories that I never meant to keep Carrying the weight of yesterday upon my soul,
It's time to open up my hands and finally let it go

[Chorus]

Let go, of all the things that hold me down,
Let go, watch the past drift to the ground
I'm reaching for the light, I'm stepping in the flow,
It's time to live, it's time to breathe, it's time to let go

[2. Verse]

Walking through these memories, shadows on the wall,
I see reflections of a time I thought I'd lost them all
But every scar and every tear has helped me grow,
I hear a voice inside my heart that whispers, 'let go'

[1. Bridge]

And if the world gets heavy,
And storms begin to grow,
I'll close my eyes and trust the wind,
And I will let it blow
No chains upon my spirit,
No burdens left to show,
I'm free at last, I say it now—
I'm ready to let go

[Chorus]

Let go, of all the things that hold me down,
Let go, watch the past drift to the ground
I'm reaching for the light, I'm stepping in the flow,
It's time to live, it's time to breathe, it's time to let go

[3. Verse]

Now the sun is rising gently on a brand-new day,
Old regrets are fading fast, as hope lights up the way
With every step I'm leaving fear and doubt below,
I'm learning to forgive myself, I'm learning to let go

[2. Bridge]

And if the world gets heavy,
And storms begin to grow,
I'll close my eyes and trust the wind,
I'm ready to let go

[Chorus]

Let go, of all the things that hold me down,
Let go, I'm free at last, I say it now—
I'm ready to let go

[Final-Chorus]

Let go, of all the things that hold me down,
Let go, watch the past drift to the ground
I'm reaching for the light, I'm stepping in the flow,
It's time to live, it's time to breathe, it's time to let go
