

Roses for a Rose

by AL ORSOM

[Verse 1]
The silence sleeps beside me now
Your shadow in my heart
Every heartbeat speaks your name
Even after all we never got

I keep your picture in my mind
Like a prayer I can't replace
And every night I close my eyes
Just to remember your face

I still imagine summer rain
Fallin' softly on your hair
Back when love was simple then
And forever filled the air

[Pre-Chorus]
Now the stars look colder than before
Since you walked away
And every tear I try to hide
Still whispers your name

[Chorus]
So I bring roses for a rose
Hoping somehow your heart still knows
That every beat inside my chest
Still calls for your love

And if time could turn around
I'd rebuild what we let drown
As long as my name is Rubert Hinges
You will never be forgotten

Roses for a rose tonight
For the girl still holding all my light

[Verse 2]
I sit alone beside the fire
With tears I can't explain
Thinking 'bout the life we lost
And who we could've been

Would we still dance in kitchen lights
Laughing at the rain
Would your fingers still find mine
When the world became too much again

I hear your voice in quiet songs
Floatin' through the dark
Like a ghost that never leaves
Still living in my heart

[Pre-Chorus]
And every road I try to take
Still somehow leads to you
No matter how I hide the pain
Your memory breaks through

[Chorus]
So I bring roses for a rose
Hoping somehow your heart still knows
That every beat inside my chest
Still calls for your love

And if time could turn around
I'd rebuild what we let drown
As long as my name is Rubert Hinges
You will never be forgotten

[Bridge]
Maybe love can lose its way
But never truly die
Maybe somewhere deep inside
You still feel you and I

And if you ever miss me too
Or dream about our past
I'll be here with open arms
Praying love can last

[Final Chorus]
So I bring roses for a rose
With trembling hands and fragile hope
And though the nights are hard to bear
I still believe in us

Because no matter where you are
You're the rhythm in my heart
And as long as my name is Rubert Hinges
I will love you through the dark

Roses for a rose tonight
Still wishing you were by my side

[Outro]
One rose for every tear I cry
One love that never said goodbye
